outdoors inspired the move towards the nature of Brice E. Hayes. Her love of children and a great place to enjoy the serene atmosphere of nature.

This outdoor sanctuary is not only a popular wedding venue, but also open the beautiful private estate to the public.

Mildred Hayes Memorial Sundial
This scenic hillside commemorates the wife of Brice E. Hayes. Her love of children and outdoors inspired the move towards educational programs for young people.

Stanley Hayes
His vision helped establish the facilities and programs.

Beech/Maple Forest
With trees up to 450 years old, this is the remnant of what the early Indiana settlers found in this region. 60 acres of old growth are located on the grounds.

These acres have many specimens of tree, shrubs, and vines native to the Whitewater Valley area. 60 acres of old growth are located on the grounds.

Habitat Trail
Yellow Arrows
Length: 1 mile
Wildflowers line the trail in early spring, including Trillium, Spring Beauties, Hepatica, and more. This trail will take you up and down several hills, over spring-fed Salamander Stream, and through lush green forest. Stops along the way include the Woodland Chapel and Scenic Overlook.

Spring-house Trail
(behind the Spring-house) Orange Arrows
Length: 1/4 mile
This short trail begins and ends in the parking lot off the Auto Tour. Starting near the Spring-house, this trail has a wide variety of wildflowers from late March through the middle of May and includes some ferns that are native to the Whitewater Valley area.

History Trail
Red Arrows
Length: 3 miles
This trail takes you by the estate home of Stanley W. Hayes. Significant sites along the trail include the Mildred Memorial Fountain and the Beech/Maple Trail. Hiking this trail will allow you to experience both forested and open-field areas.

Mountain Bike Trails
Length: 8 miles
The Mountain Bike Trails are located on the East side of the property, across Hayes Arboretum Rd. Check the Hayes Arb Mountain Bike Trails Facebook page for trail status. To ride the trail, bikers must sign a one time safety waiver and wear a helmet. The waiver can be found online at www.hayesarb.org.

Paul C. McClure Native Woody Plant Preserve
These acres have many specimens of tree, shrubs, and vines native to the Whitewater Valley Drainage Basin. It’s a great example of how these trees would grow over hundreds of years with plenty of space.

The fountain is dedicated to former board President, Brice E. Hayes. His vision helped establish the facilities and programs.
